

Smile Award

is awarded to

Ducklings Pre-school, Emerson Valley
'Highly Commended'

January 2019

In recognition of their valuable contribution to improving the dental health and diet of children and young people in a community, educational, health or social care setting

Staff have completed Oral Health Awareness and Nutrition Training and the setting gives evidence of:

Following approved healthy snack guidelines

Working with parents and guardians to encourage consistency with healthy food & drink choices

Following good practice in hand washing

Portion control

Elaine Herety

Oral Health Improvement

This award is based on the principles outlined in The Scientific Basis of Oral Health Education, Sixth Edition, R S Levine and C R Stillman-Lowe, and the Eatwell Plate, Public Health England in association with the Welsh Government, the Scottish Government and the Food Standards Agency in Northern Ireland

